1. This Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy explains how Haptic LTD (“Haptic”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website haptic.com. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies as described in this policy.

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They allow the website to recognize your device and remember certain information about your visit, such as your preferences and settings.

3. How we Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Enhance Your Experience: By remembering your preferences and settings, we can provide a more personalised experience.
- Analyse Website Usage: Collect information about how visitors use our Website, including which pages are visited most often and from which countries our visitors come. This helps us understand our audience and improve our services.
- Improve Website Functionality: Cookies help us optimise the performance of our Website and develop new features.
- Ensure Security: Certain cookies are essential for the security and integrity of our Website.

We do not use cookies to collect personally identifiable information about you without your consent.

4. Types of Cookies We Use

a. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the operation of our Website. They enable core functionalities such as security, network management, and accessibility. Without these cookies, services you have asked for cannot be provided.

b. Performance and Analytics Cookies

These cookies collect information about how you use our Website, such as the pages you visit and if you experience any errors. They also gather data on the geographic location of our visitors, helping us understand from which countries our audience is accessing our site. The information collected is aggregated and anonymous. We use this data to:

- Monitor and improve the performance of our Website.
- Understand how visitors interact with our Website.
- Tailor our content to better meet the needs of our audience.

c. Functionality Cookies

Functionality cookies allow our Website to remember choices you make (such as your language or region) and provide enhanced features. These cookies may also be used to provide services you have requested, like responding to your inquiries.
